GETTING AROUND

All roads and modes lead to NoMa. With two Red Metrorail Stations and the multi-modal hub at Union Station where you can catch VRE, MARC, Amtrak, Metrorail, Metrobus or the Circulator, you can get here from anywhere! Rent a bike at the new Union Station Bikestation, or use Capital Bikeshare, and jump on the 8-mile Met Branch Trail up to Silver Spring. If you are driving, NoMa offers easy access to the city's major highways: I-395, I-295 and Route 50 (New York Avenue) are just a few blocks away.

ABOUT THE BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT DISTRICT (BID)

Created in March 2007, the NoMa Business Improvement District is a non-profit organization funded by a special tax assessment on commercial property within the 35-block area north of Massachusetts Avenue. The BID supports NoMa's renaissance by providing a clean, safe and friendly environment for businesses, residents and visitors. For more information, visit www.nomabid.org and sign up for our bimonthly newsletter.
